

Health Care Options Offered For Jobless

Dear Action Line: I've recently lost my job and my group health care coverage. Faced with paying the mighty cost of COBRA health care, I ask you to provide suggestions on how to get health-care insurance for less than an arm and a leg. -- M.T., Tulsa.

Foundation for Health Coverage Education: As the worsening economy takes jobs, the unemployed find it difficult to provide health coverage for their families. The nonprofit Foundation for Health Coverage Education ( tulsaworld.com/HCE ) helps 14 million Americans eligible for no-cost or low-cost state and federal plans find coverage. Contact the foundation at (800) 238-1317 or e-mail fhceingo@coverageforall.org.

The partnerships involve health insurance from such groups as Blue Cross Blue Shield -- e-mail tulsaworld.com/BCBS, or in Tulsa call 560-3500, or write Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Oklahoma, P.O. Box 3283, Tulsa, OK 74102-3283; and eHealth Insurance -- e-mail tulsaworld.com/eHI, or call (800) 977-8860, or for individuals or families, write Customer Care Center, 11919 Foundation Place, Gold River, CA 95670.

Uninsured Help Line: For individuals, families and small businesses (50 or fewer employees), contact the U.S. Uninsured Help Line at (800) 234-1317, visit tulsaworld.com/NAHU , or write to National Association of Health Underwriters, 2000 N. 14th Street Ste. 450, Arlington, VA 22201, or e-mail info@nahu.org. The association began in 1930 following the first recorded plan of modern-day group medical expense coverage. Also contact the Oklahoma State Association of Health Underwriters at tulsaworld.com/OSAHU .

Oklahoma Health Care Options Matrix: This NAHU brochure is the only handheld guide available outlining Oklahoma's public and private health care choices for individuals and groups in almost every demographic profile (low-income individuals to veterans, etc.). It lists phone numbers and Web sites and is an ideal
